CAMP PENDLETON, Calif., Dec. 4—Former President Nixon made an unannounced trip to the Camp Pendleton dispensary today to undergo routine X-ray tests reportedly requested by his surgeon. He returned home immediately.

Nixon was driven from his San Clemente residence to the Marine Corps base, walked the short distance to the dispensary and spent about 30 minutes inside, according to William Gulley, a liaison officer in Washington, D.C.

Gulley did not disclose the nature of the tests,
